How We Grow
Implementing Spiritual Habits

Discerning the Call - Philippians 1:9-10

1. "Diakresis"
- a. listening: sorting what is of God

b. seeking: testing options; confirming direction

c. waiting: embracing not having certainty; trusting God's providence

d. choosing: making choices and living wisely into them.

2. Some key texts (Proverbs 3:21-24; Philippians 1:9-10; Matthew 14:28; Nehemiah 6:1-9)

3. Signal Detection Theory -increasing our sensitivity to key details and sequences.

Application:

A. Assemble a Clearness Committee to ask you questions like these:

- > What do I most enjoy doing for its own sake, not for money?
- > In my previous roles, what do I avoid doing? Why?
- > For what do I wish to be remembered?
- > How might the possibility of a promotion or salary increase sidetrack me from my true calling?

B. The Low-Cost Probe

- > Test the waters, so to speak. Try it without quitting your day job.
- > God doesn't waste prior experience--how might he use your existing skills and experience in this new venture?
- > Start with a small commitment that can potentially lead to a greater one.

C. Diakresis

- > Listening: Is what I'm doing good for my family? Is it good for the community? Is this what God would have me do? Does it truly utilize my gifts?
- > Seeking: Is this truly a source of joy? Does this tap more fully into my best gifts? Is what I'm doing a genuine service to people around me?
- > Waiting: What specifically brings joy or consolation? What brings sadness or desolation? Take time to tell your story--how did this calling come to your attention?
- > Choosing: Be indifferent. Practice detachment: letting go of all we desire and asking for God's will. "It can go either way." This helps sort. Cultivate a desire for God above all.
