Car Talk  Youth Sunday School

Acts 28:11-31. Paul finally made it to Rome. He reasoned with the Jews, telling them about the “hope of Israel” and the “kingdom of God.” “Some were persuaded by what he said, but others did not believe” (Acts 28:24). Paul quoted Isaiah 6:10, feeling this prophecy applied to some of the Jews in Rome:

“Otherwise they might see with their _____, hear with their _____, understand with their _____ and turn, and I would heal them” (Acts 28:27b).

God offers this healing from sin to both Jews and Gentiles. Who would you like to tell about Jesus? What would you want them to know?
