Car Talk

Youth Sunday School

Acts 24-26. At least a couple had years passed, and Paul was still imprisoned by the Romans. Paul appeared before governors (Felix, Festus) and kings (Agrippa II), but no one could figure out with what to charge him. Yet Paul couldn't be released, because the Jews still intended to kill him (25:3).

→ When Paul spoke to Governor Felix, Felix became afraid. Why? (Paul spoke about "faith in Christ Jesus... righteousness, self-control, and the judgment to come." See 24:24-25).

→ Like Felix, do you need to fear God's judgment? Why or why not?

→ Paul thought sharing the Good News of Jesus was worth imprisonment and even death. Why? How is sharing the Good News one aspect of loving your neighbor as yourself?
